In-Depth Workshop: Win / Loss Analysis

Many in sales, marketing, product management, competitive intelligence, and even executives don't REALLY know why their company wins, loses and retains business. Win/Loss keeps businesses from repeating their mistakes by asking their customers, "what happened?" Learn what Win/Loss analysis is; why it works; and how your company will win and retain more business by developing a Win/Loss program. Learn the unique 12-step Win/Loss process that has guided managers and executives to best-in-class results. Our breakout sessions will cover questionnaire creation and other phases of Win/Loss program execution. The speaker will share lessons learned from over 25+ years of conducting Win/Loss analysis and from writing the book, "Win/Loss Analysis: How to Capture and Keep the Business You Want."

Influencing the C-Suite

One often cited complaint from strategic intelligence professionals is that their analysis isn't valued by their key executives, and they are viewed as an overhead function. This presentation will highlight a real-world case study of the Strategic Intelligence team at RingCentral, who have become a key partner for their executive staff and key functions, and an key enabler of the corporate transformation currently going on there. Participants will be able to walk away from this session with a roadmap for building a Strategic Intelligence team, that can become a strategic partner for the business, and who executives turn to for critical outside-in perspectives.

Presenter: Ruchi Sethi, Competitive Intelligence Lead - Product Marketing at RingCentral

2:45 pm (choose from 2 sessions):

In-Depth Workshop: Competitive Wargaming and Simulations

Develop situational awareness of competitive position. In the real world, most competitive issues are usually focused on tactical and operational problems or responses to emerging competitive threats rather than "grand strategy" initiatives that require external support and guidance to make actionable. This is why the hottest trend in business wargaming today is "skilling up" teams of internal facilitators with the ability to take on tactician support roles for exercises attacking the following seven (7) business problems:

- Product Extensions and New Feature Design
- New Market or Segment Entry with Existing Products and Services
- Reacting to New Competitors with Asymmetric Market Power or Resources
- Anticipating Disruptive Threats to your Business Model or Industry Structure
- New Leadership Changes at Major Incumbent Competitors or your own Company
- Mergers, Acquisitions and Alliances to Fortify Talent, IP or Product/Feature Development
- Addressing Shifting Customer Needs/Wants Ahead of Competitor Reactions

In this workshop, we will introduce these seven specific applications that can be most commonly addressed by internal wargame tacticians. Every master strategist or tactician started out as a novice so, join this exciting presentation and begin your journey toward making wargames and competitive simulations more accessible and actionable in your organization.

In-Depth Workshop- Digital Marketing Workshop: Applying Toolsets to that Elevate your Competitive Intelligence to the Next Level

Is your company struggling with digital marketing roadblocks but your competitors are not? Are you frustrated with your current CI tools and services? Are they too complex, too slow and too expensive? Understanding and learning how to react to the competitive landscape can mean life or death for your company. You know that.

Truly grasping your competitors' marketing movements means immersing yourself into their worlds. This means comprehending their languages and being aware of their cultures. Delving into their DNA.

This workshop will help you harness existing digital toolsets and the data they provide to help you create a holistic picture of your competitive ecosystem. Dig deep and find out what is really taking place behind the public screen of your rivals' online presence.

You will have access to tools you didn't know existed. All via your laptop. You will learn to use these secret avenues as well as conventional approaches to get a backstage pass to peek behind the curtain.

Are you revamping your website? Are you considering an M&A strategy? Does your marketing staff need external signals to justify their budgets? Do you need to keep a close eye on your competitive digital landscape? Then this workshop is for you.
